

Takashi Shimokyoda

Deputy Director of the Fluoride Gases Management Office, Manufacturing Industries Bureau, Ministry of the Economy, Trade and Industry (METI), Government of Japan.

Mr. Shimokyoda is in charge of international issues, in the Fluoride Gases Management Office, Manufacturing Industries Bureau, Ministry of the Economy Trade and Industry (METI) and a member of the delegation from Japan to attend the Meeting of the Parties of Montreal Protocol as a negotiator on behalf of the Japanese government.

1995 Graduated from Chuo University, and entered into Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry

2008-2013 First Secretary, Embassy of Japan in Pakistan, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

2013-2015 Deputy Director, South East Asia Office, Trade Policy Bureau, Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry

2015-2016 Deputy Director, Economic Partnership Division, Trade policy Bureau, Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry

2016-2019 First Secretary, Embassy of Japan in Bangladesh, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

2019- Deputy Director, Fluoride Gases Management Office, Manufacturing Industries Bureau, Ministry of the Economy, Trade and Industry

Japan's Policies of Fluorocarbons Management Policy

METI would like to explain that Japan's Progress in countering Fluorocarbons Emissions, control measures to reduce Fluorocarbons in accordance with Montreal Protocol, and what Japanese government can do about the alternative and new refrigerants.

The issues of the METI's presentations are consist of below three contests:

1. Historical Context Surrounding Measures to Reduce Fluorocarbons
2. Control measures of Manufacture and Import of Fluorocarbons
(Revised Ozone Layer Protection Law in accordance with the Kigali Amendment)
3. Emission Control of Fluorocarbons
(Enhancing Recovery of Fluorocarbon refrigerants at the time of equipment disposal)